INTRODUCTION

Please read this Agreement and Disclosure booklet completely and retain it with your personal records. By signing the Membership Application that is a part of the Agreement, you agree to the terms and conditions in this Agreement, including the Rate Sheets accompanying this Agreement, any account receipt, and the Credit Union's bylaws and policies. All Share ("Savings") accounts, Share Draft ("Checking") accounts and Term Share ("Certificate") Accounts are subject to the terms and conditions in this booklet and such other terms and conditions as established by the Board of Directors. From time to time changes may be made to the disclosures in this booklet. In the event of such changes you will be notified within the appropriate timeframes defined by governing law.

YOUR SHARE AGREEMENTS AND TRUTH-IN-SAVINGS DISCLOSURE

TRUTH IN SAVINGS DISCLOSURES

Par Value

The par value of each share will be $5.00.

Rate Information

The Dividend Rate and Annual Percentage Yield on your accounts are set forth on the Rate Sheets accompanying this Agreement. For all accounts except certificates, the Dividend Rate and Annual Percentage Yield may change at any time as determined by the Board of Directors. For Certificate Accounts, the Dividend Rate and Annual Percentage Yield are fixed and will be in effect for the term of the account. For Certificate accounts, the Annual Percentage Yield is based on an assumption that dividends will remain on deposit until maturity. A withdrawal of dividends will reduce earnings.

Money Market accounts, Free Checking Accounts, and Health Savings Accounts are tiered rate accounts. The Dividend Rate specified for a tier will apply only to the portion of the account balance that is within that tier. The range of annual percentage yield(s) (which vary depending on the balance in the account) are shown for each tier.

Nature of Dividends

Dividends are paid from current income and available earnings after required transfers to reserves at the end of a dividend period. The Dividend Rates and Annual Percentage Yield set forth on the Rate Sheets are accurate as of the Effective Date, which the Credit Union anticipates paying for the applicable dividend period.

Dividend Compounding and Crediting

Dividends will be compounded and credited as set forth on the Rate Sheets. For dividend bearing accounts, the Dividend Period begins on the first calendar day of the period and ends on the last calendar day of the period.

Accrual of dividends

Dividends will begin to accrue on all deposits on the business day you make the deposit to your account. If you close your account before accrued dividends are credited, accrued dividends will not be paid.

Balance Information

The minimum balance required to open each account and earn the stated Annual Percentage Yield is set forth on the Rate Sheets. If you do not maintain the minimum balance, you will not earn the stated Annual Percentage Yield. For all accounts, dividends are calculated by using the Daily Balance method, which applies a daily periodic rate to balance in the account each day.

Fixed Rate Certificate Account Features

- a) Account Limitations. After your account is opened, you may not make additional deposits to a Certificate account.
- b) Maturity. Your Certificate account will mature on the maturity date set forth on your Account Receipt or Renewal Notice.
- c) Early Withdrawal Penalty. We may impose a penalty if you withdraw any of the principal of your Certificate account before the maturity date.
 1. Amount of Penalty. The penalty is based on the term of the certificate. For certificates of 12 months or less, the penalty is equal to 90 days' dividends on the amount withdrawn. For certificates with terms longer than 12 months, the penalty will equal 180 days' dividends on the amount withdrawn.

2. How the Penalty Works. The penalty is calculated on the amount of early withdrawal. The penalty is calculated as a forfeiture of part of the dividends that have been or would be earned. It applies whether or not the dividends have been earned. In other words, if the account has not yet earned enough dividends or if the dividends have already been paid, the penalty will be deducted from the principal.
 3. Exceptions to Early Withdrawal Penalties. At our option, we may pay the account before maturity without imposing an early withdrawal penalty under the following circumstances: when an account owner dies or is determined legally incompetent by a court or other body of competent jurisdiction. Where the account is an Individual Retirement Account (IRA) and any portion is paid within seven (7) days after establishment or where the account is an IRA and the owner attains age 59½ or becomes disabled and begins making periodic withdrawals.
 4. Call Option. If your certificate has a maturity date of 60 months or greater, the certificate may be "called" or "redeemed" at the sole discretion of the Credit Union. We may exercise this option at any time. If we "call" the certificate, we will give you at least 30 days notice before the call date. Any redeemed certificate proceeds will be placed in your Money Market Account.
- d) Renewal Policy. Certificate accounts are automatically renewable accounts. Automatically renewable accounts will renew for another term upon maturity. You have a grace period of ten days after maturity in which to withdraw funds in the account without being charged an early withdrawal penalty.

Smart Growth Variable Rate Certificate Account Features

- a) Additional Deposits. After your account is opened, you may make additional deposits to a Smart Growth Variable Rate Certificate account.
- b) Maturity. Your Certificate account will mature on the maturity date set forth on your Account Receipt or Renewal Notice.
- c) Early Withdrawal Penalty. You may make one annual withdrawal of 10% of the principal balance without penalty. We may impose a penalty if you withdraw any additional principal of your Certificate account before the maturity date.
 1. Amount of Penalty. The penalty will equal 180 days' dividends on the amount withdrawn.
 2. How the Penalty Works. The penalty is calculated on the amount of early withdrawal. The penalty is calculated as a forfeiture of part of the dividends that have been or would be earned. It applies whether or not the dividends have been earned. In other words, if the account has not yet earned enough dividends or if the dividends have already been paid, the penalty will be deducted from the principal.
 3. Exceptions to Early Withdrawal Penalties. At our option, we may pay the account before maturity without imposing an early withdrawal penalty under the following circumstances: when an account owner dies or is determined legally incompetent by a court or other body of competent jurisdiction. Where the account is an Individual Retirement Account (IRA) and any portion is paid within seven (7) days after establishment or where the account is an IRA and the owner attains age 59½ or becomes disabled and begins making periodic withdrawals.
 4. Call Option. If your certificate has a maturity date of 60 months or greater, the certificate may be "called" or "redeemed" at the sole discretion of the Credit Union. We may exercise this option at any time. If we "call" the certificate, we will give you at least 30 days notice before the call date. Any redeemed certificate proceeds will be placed in your Money Market Account.
- d) Renewal Policy. Certificate accounts are automatically renewable accounts. Automatically renewable accounts will renew for another term upon maturity. You have a grace period of ten days after maturity in which to withdraw funds in the account without being charged an early withdrawal penalty.

Nontransferable/Nonnegotiable

Your account is nontransferable and nonnegotiable. The funds in your account may not be pledged to secure any obligation of an owner, except obligations with the Credit Union.

MEMBERSHIP AND ACCOUNT AGREEMENT

This Agreement is the contract of deposit, which covers your and our rights and responsibilities concerning Membership and Account(s) offered to you. In this Agreement, the words "you" and "yours" mean those who sign the Membership Application ("Membership Application"). The words "we," "us," and "our" mean the NW Preferred Federal Credit Union ("Credit Union"). The word "account" means any one or more deposit accounts you have with the Credit Union.

By signing the Membership Application, each of you, jointly and severally, agree to the terms and conditions in this Agreement, including the Funds Availability Policy, Electronic Funds Transfer Agreement, Privacy Policy, and the Rate and Fee Schedule and Truth-in-Savings Disclosures accompanying this Agreement, any account receipt, the Credit Union's Bylaws and policies, and any amendments, which collectively govern your Membership and Accounts. You agree that additional accounts and services you request in the future will be governed by this Agreement, as amended from time to time.

Membership Eligibility

To be eligible for membership in the Credit Union you must be an individual or entity qualifying within the Credit Union's field of membership, and must satisfy the membership requirements in the Credit Union's Bylaws. You authorize us to check financial information data about you by any means allowed by law, including obtaining a credit report or credit score from any consumer reporting agencies, to verify your eligibility for the accounts and services you request.

Account Ownership (Personal)

Unless otherwise specified in the Account Agreement, the parties ("Account Holder(s)") who sign an Account Agreement agree with each other and with the Credit Union that all funds in the account(s) shall be owned as follows:

Individual Accounts: The account or certificate is owned by the party named on the Account Agreement. Upon the death of the party, the interest of the party will pass, subject to applicable law, to the decedent's estate or payable on death beneficiary, if applicable.

Joint Accounts: The account or certificate is owned by the parties named on the Account Agreement. Upon the death of any of them, ownership passes to the survivor(s). A surviving owner's interest is subject to the Credit Union's statutory lien and security interest for the deceased owner's obligations, and to any security interest or pledge granted by a deceased owner, even if a surviving owner did not consent to it. Upon the death of all of them, ownership passes to the decedent's estate or payable on death beneficiary, if applicable. If the account includes a joint owner(s), the member may remove the joint owner(s) from the account with or without prior permission of the joint owner(s), however the joint owner(s) may not remove the member.

Fiduciary Account: A fiduciary account is an account opened by an executor, administrator, personal representative, trustee, conservator, or other fiduciary in such capacity authorized under a will, court order or trust instrument establishing the fiduciary relationship or a Representative Payee authorized by the Social Security Administration ("fiduciary"). The account owner is the estate, conservatorship, trust or Social Security Administration benefit recipient as the sole owner of this account. The fiduciary is authorized to act on behalf of the account owner but has no ownership interest in the account. The fiduciary is the only authorized party to transact on this account. The fiduciary is expressly authorized to endorse all items payable to or owned by the Account owner for deposit with or collection by the Credit Union and to execute such other agreements and to perform any other account transaction under the Agreement. The fiduciary is authorized to receive account information from the Credit Union, either orally or in writing, and any information related to the account. The authority given to the fiduciary shall remain in full force until a court order, termination of the account owner or written notice of revocation is received by the Credit Union either by a court appointed representative of the account owner or by the Social Security Administration, as applicable. Any such notice shall not affect any items in process at the time notice is given. The fiduciary will notify the Credit Union of any change in the account owner's status affecting the deposit relationship between the account owner and the Credit Union. The fiduciary warrants that all actions he or she takes regarding the account will be for the sole benefit of the account owner and that the fiduciary will not conduct any transaction on the account that will personally benefit the fiduciary or will not comply with the terms of the applicable laws, will, court order or instrument establishing the fiduciary relationship. The Credit Union may rely upon these representations and shall have no duty to examine such authorizing documents for compliance or inquire as to the powers and duties of the fiduciary and shall have no notice of any breach of fiduciary duties by the fiduciary unless the Credit Union has actual notice of wrongdoing. The account owner agrees that the Credit Union shall not be liable for any losses due to the account owner's failure to notify the Credit Union of any unauthorized acts of the fiduciary or changes to the relationship between the fiduciary and account owner. The account owner and fiduciary agree to indemnify and hold Credit Union harmless of any claim or liability as a result of unauthorized acts of the fiduciary upon which Credit Union relies prior to any actual notice of any account change or change of account owner.

Payable on Death/Totten Trust Accounts: A Payable on Death (POD) designation is an instruction to the Credit Union that a designated account is an account payable to the owner or owners during their lifetimes, and upon the death of the last joint account owner, payable to any named and surviving POD beneficiary designated by you. Accounts payable to more than one POD beneficiary are owned jointly by such beneficiaries with rights of survivorship. Any POD beneficiary designation shall not apply to IRA accounts which shall be governed by a separate beneficiary designation. The Credit Union shall at no time have any obligation to notify any beneficiary of the existence of any account or the vesting of the beneficiary's interest in any account, except as otherwise provided by law.

Uniform Transfer to Minor Account: A Uniform Transfer to Minor Account (UTMA) is an individual account established by a member as a custodian on behalf of a minor (a person under twenty-one (21) years of age). The custodian shall open the account in the name of the minor, include the minor's social security number, and must sign his or her own name on the Application. The custodian is the owner of the account for the exclusive right and benefit of the minor and, barring a court order otherwise, is the only party entitled to make deposits to, withdrawals from, or close the account. In the event of the custodian's death, the Credit Union may place an administrative hold on the account until it receives instructions from any person authorized by law to withdraw funds or a court order authorizing such withdrawal. It is the custodian's responsibility to turn the funds over to the minor beneficiary once the person reaches 21 years of age.

Joint Accounts

Rights of Joint Account Owners. Any joint owner is authorized and deemed to act for the other owner(s) and the Credit Union may accept orders and instruction regarding the account and requests for future services from any other account owner. Each account owner guarantees the signature of the other owners. Any account owner may withdraw all funds in the account, stop payment on items drawn on an account, withdraw, or pledge or grant a security interest in all or any part of the shares of any account, including funds representing a membership share, without the consent of the other account owner(s) and the Credit Union shall have no duty to notify any other joint account owner(s). A security interest in account funds granted by one owner will continue in effect after that owner's death, and takes priority over the survivorship interest of other owners. If the Credit Union receives written notice of a dispute between account owners or receives inconsistent instructions from them, the Credit Union may suspend or terminate the account, require a Court order to act or require that all joint account owners agree in writing to any transaction concerning the account.

Joint Account Owner Liability. If any item deposited in a joint account is returned unpaid or an account is overdrawn, or if we do not receive final payment on any transaction, each of the multiple account owners is jointly and severally liable to the Credit Union for the amount of the returned item, overdraft, or unpaid amount and any charges, regardless of who created the overdraft, deposited or cashed the item or benefited from the transaction. If any account owner is indebted to the Credit Union, the Credit Union may enforce its rights against any or all funds in the joint account regardless of who contributed the funds to the joint account.

Account Ownership (Business)

Accounts of Business Organizations. Accounts held in the name of a business or association member are subject to the same terms set forth in this Agreement and the following additional rules. The Credit Union reserves the right to require the member to provide an Account Authorization informing the Credit Union who is authorized to act on its behalf. You agree to notify the Credit Union of any change in authority. The Credit Union may rely on the written authorization until such time as the Credit Union is informed of changes in writing and has had a reasonable time to act upon such notice. The Credit Union may require that third party checks payable to an organization may not be cashed, but must be deposited to an organization account. The Credit Union shall have no notice of any breach of fiduciary duties arising from a transaction by any agent of the account owner, unless the Credit Union has written notice of any wrongdoing.

Certificate of Authority.

Name. The Account Owner shown on the front of the membership application is the complete and correct name of the Account Owner.

Authorized Signers. The listed officers, authorized agents, or trustees, as applicable of the Account Owner presently shown on the Membership Application and are authorized to transact business on behalf of the Account Owner.

Authority.

The individuals signing on the Membership Application certify and agree that the Account Owner's accounts will be governed by the terms set forth in this Membership and Account Agreement, as amended from time to time.

The Credit Union is directed to accept and pay without further inquiry any item drawn against any of the Account Owner's accounts with the Credit Union.

Unless otherwise indicated, any one Authorized Signer is expressly authorized to endorse all checks, overdrafts, notes and other items payable at the Credit Union, and to execute such other agreements and to perform such other acts as they deem reasonably necessary to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

The authority given to the Authorized Signers shall remain in full force until written notice of revocation is delivered to and received by the Credit Union. Any such notice shall not affect any items in process at the time notice is given. An authorized officer, trustee, or agent of the Account Owner will notify the Credit Union of any change in the Account Owner's composition, assumed business names, or any aspect of the entity affecting the deposit relationship between the Account Owner and the Credit Union before any such change occurs. The Account Owner agrees that the Credit Union shall not be liable for any losses due to the Account Owner's failure to notify the Credit Union of such changes.

Deposit Requirements

Funds may be deposited to any account in any manner approved by the Credit Union, subject to restrictions outlined in this Agreement, the Rate Sheets and the Current Fee Schedule. All accounts are non-assignable and non-negotiable to third parties. Certificate accounts are also governed by the terms of this Agreement and the terms and disclosures on your Certificate Account Receipt for each account, which is incorporated herein by this reference. We may refuse to accept any check or other item for deposit at any time, for any reason. You agree not to deposit any substitute check or similar item that you have created, or for which no financial institution has provided any substitute check warranties and indemnity. If you do so, you agree to indemnify the Credit Union for all losses the Credit Union incurs in connection with the substitute check or item. You agree not to deposit any substitute check without our consent.

- a) Endorsements. You authorize the Credit Union, at its discretion, to accept transfers, checks, drafts, and other items for deposit into any of your accounts, whether or not they are endorsed by all payees. You authorize the Credit Union to supply missing endorsements if the Credit Union chooses to supply such endorsements. When you deposit items to your account, you warrant that all prior endorsements are genuine. The Credit Union reserves the right to verify all endorsements on third party checks presented for deposit either in person or by comparison with member signature files. If an insurance, government, and certain other checks or drafts require an endorsement as set forth on the back of the check, the Credit Union may require endorsement as set forth on the check. Endorsements must be placed in the space on the back of the check between the top edge and 1 1/2 inches from the top edge. The Credit Union may accept drafts or checks with endorsements outside this space. However, if any such endorsement or other markings you or any prior endorser made on the check cause any delay or error in processing the item for payment, you will be responsible for any loss incurred by the Credit Union due to the delay or error.
- b) Collection of Items. The Credit Union shall not be responsible for deposits made by mail or at an unstaffed facility until the Credit Union actually receives them. In handling items for deposit or collection, the Credit Union only acts as your agent and assumes no responsibility beyond the exercise of ordinary care. The Credit Union will not be liable for default or negligence of any correspondent or for loss in transit, and each correspondent will only be liable for its own negligence. The Credit Union reserves the right to send any item for collection.
- c) Final Payment. All non-cash deposits posted to your account are provisional and subject to our receipt of final payment. If final payment is not received, we reserve the right to charge your account for the amount of those deposits and impose a return charge on your account. After we have received final payment, we refer to these deposits as collected items. If the Credit Union incurs any fee to collect any item, the Credit Union may charge such fee to your account. The Credit Union reserve the right to refuse or to return all or any item or funds transfer. The Credit Union shall have the right to charge back against your account all previously deposited items or other items endorsed by you that are returned to the Credit Union unpaid, regardless of whether the amount of the item has been available for your use.
- d) Direct Deposits. The Credit Union may offer direct deposit options allowing you to preauthorize deposits (i.e., government checks) or preauthorize transfers from other accounts at the Credit Union. If applicable, you must notify the Credit Union at least 30 days prior to any direct deposit or preauthorized transfer if you wish to cancel or change the direct deposit or direct transfer option. Upon a filing of a bankruptcy, if you fail to cancel any direct deposit authorization, you instruct your employer and the Credit Union to make and apply direct deposits in accordance with your authorization on file with the Credit Union. If the Credit Union is required to reimburse the U.S. Government for any benefit payment directly deposited into your account for any reason, you agree the Credit Union may deduct the amount returned from any of your accounts, unless prohibited by law.
- e) Crediting of Deposits. Unless otherwise stated in the Funds Availability Policy, deposits received at our offices on business days before the deposit cutoff time will be credited to your account as of the day of the deposit. Deposits made after the deposit cutoff time and deposits made on Credit Union holidays and on days that are not business days of the Credit Union will be credited to your account on the next business day. Deposits received at unstaffed teller locations, such as night depositories, will be credited on the day funds are removed and processed by the Credit Union and are subject to adjustment based on our verification of the items deposited. Items drawn from an institution located outside the United States are handled on a collection basis only. Funds will be credited to your account when we receive final payment. You waive any notice of nonpayment, dishonor, or protest regarding any items credited to your account.

Account Access

- a) Authorized Signature. In order to access any account, the Credit Union must have an authorized signature of yours on a Membership Application. The Credit Union is authorized to recognize your signature, but will not be liable for refusing to honor any item or instruction of yours if it believes in good faith that the signature on such item or instruction is not genuine. If you open your account electronically and/or do not provide us with a physical signature, you agree that we may, without liability, accept as genuine any signature that appears to be yours. If you have authorized the use of a facsimile signature, the Credit Union may honor any draft that appears to bear your facsimile signature even if it was made by an unauthorized person. If you give your account number to a third person, you authorize us to honor transactions initialized by the third person even if you did not specifically authorize a particular transaction.
- b) Access Options. You may make withdrawals or transfers from your account in any manner which is permitted by the Credit Union (i.e., computer, branch, check, automated teller machines (ATMs), mobile device, debit card, in person, by mail, automatic transfer or telephone). If the Credit Union accepts any draft that is not drawn on a form provided by the Credit Union, you will be responsible for any loss incurred by the Credit Union for handling the draft. The Credit Union may return as unpaid any check that is not drawn in the form provided by the Credit Union.
- c) ACH and Wire Transfers. If offered, you may initiate credits or debits to your account via wire transfer or ACH ("Automated Clearing House") transfer. You agree that if you receive funds by a wire or ACH transfer, the Credit Union is not required to notify you at the time the funds are received. Instead, the transfer will be shown on your periodic statement. The Credit Union may provisionally credit your account for an ACH transfer before it receives final settlement for the transfer. You agree that if the Credit Union does not receive final settlement for a transfer, it may reverse the provisional credit to your account, or you will refund the amount to the Credit Union. When you initiate a wire transfer, you may identify either the recipient or any financial institution by name and by account or identifying number. The Credit Union (and other institutions) may rely on the account or other identifying number you give as the proper identification number, even if it identifies a different party or institution. Wire transfers are governed by Federal Reserve Regulation J if the transfer is cleared through Federal Reserve. ACH transactions are governed by the rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association. Under those rules, if you have revoked your authorization for previously authorized ACH transactions, the Credit Union will not be responsible for the unauthorized ACH debits to your account if you fail to notify us in writing within 15 days after we send, or make available to you, the statement containing that entry. You agree that the authorized transfer to or from your account must comply with all applicable federal and state laws or regulations including OFAC (Office of Foreign Asset Control) regulations.
- d) Credit Union Examination. The Credit Union may disregard information on any check other than the signature of the drawer and amount of the item and any magnetic encoded information. You agree the Credit Union does not fail to exercise ordinary care in paying an item solely because its procedures do not provide for sight examination of items.
- e) Transactions by Mail. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Credit Union may permit you to make deposits, transfers, and withdrawals by mail. Transfers and withdrawals by mail will require a signed written request by you. Such transactions will be posted to your account as of the day the transaction is received at the Credit Union.
- f) Electronic Check Transactions.
 1. Electronic Checks. If you authorize a merchant to electronically debit your checking account using the routing, account and serial number of your check to initiate the transfer, whether the check is blank, partially or fully completed and signed, such authorization is an electronic funds transfer ("EFT") subject to the terms of your Electronic Funds Transfer Agreement. You authorize us to honor any electronic check conversion from your checking account just the same as a regular written check.
 2. Electronic Re-presented Checks. If you write a check on your account that we return unpaid because of insufficient or uncollected funds, the payee or any subsequent holder of the check may re-present the check to us, through an electronic instruction ("Electronic Re-presented Check") to charge your account for the amount of the check. If we receive an electronic re-presented check, we will pay or return the electronic re-presented check as if the original paper check was presented to us. Any collection fee you authorize the merchant to debit from your account is an electronic funds transfer subject to the terms of your Electronic Funds Transfer Agreement. If you want to reverse an electronic re-presented check, you must give us an affidavit within fifteen (15) days after we send or make available to you the periodic statement that reflects payment of that electronic re-presented check. In your affidavit, you must declare and swear under oath that the electronic re-presented check was ineligible or unauthorized. If we receive a proper notice or affidavit from you within the fifteen (15) day period, we will recredit your account with the amount of the charge. If you wish to stop payment of any electronic re-presented check, you must follow the procedures contained in this Agreement for stopping payment of checks, not the procedures for stopping payment on electronic loan or bill payments. If you ask us to request the depositor's bank to send us the original paper check or a copy of the paper check, and we provide it to you, you agree that you will not seek to have your account recredited due to a prior stop payment order if the item is otherwise ineligible for collection.

Account Rates and Fees

The Credit Union's payment of dividends or interest on any account is subject to the account rates and fees, earnings, payment and balance requirements as set forth on the Rate, the Current Fee Schedule and each Certificate Receipt, which are incorporated herein by this reference. You agree the Credit Union may impose fees and charges for the deposit account services provided by the Credit Union. You agree that the Current Fee Schedule may change from time to time and you will be notified of such changes as required by law.

Certificate Accounts

Any certificate offered by the Credit Union, is subject to the terms of this Agreement and the specific terms and disclosures set forth on the deposit receipt for each account which is incorporated herein by reference.

Transaction Limitations

- a) Withdrawal Restrictions. The Credit Union is only required to permit a withdrawal if you have sufficient available funds in your account to cover the full amount of the withdrawal. Drafts or other transfer or payment orders which are drawn against insufficient available funds will be subject to a service charge, set forth in the Current Fee Schedule. If there are sufficient available funds to cover some but not all of your withdrawal orders, the Credit Union may allow those withdrawals for which there are sufficient available funds in any order at the Credit Union's discretion.
- b) The Credit Union can also refuse to allow a withdrawal in other cases; for example: any dispute between the owners of the account (unless a court has ordered the Credit Union to allow the withdrawal); a legal garnishment or attachment is served; the account secures an obligation to the Credit Union; any required documentation has not been presented; or you fail to repay a Credit Union loan on time. Any garnishment is subject to the Credit Union's lien or security interest in an account. You will be advised of the reasons for refusal if such action is taken. The Credit Union reserves the right to require members to give notice in writing of any intended withdrawals from any account (except checks) of not less than 7 days and up to 60 days, as required by applicable law, before such withdrawal.

Overdrafts

- a) Order in Which Checks and Other Items are Paid. In general, we pay checks and other transactions in the order in which they are presented to us for payment, regardless of when you issued or authorized them. Insufficient balances on your account may result from 1) checks, 2) automated clearing house (ACH) debits such as online bill payment transactions, 3) payments authorized by an owner or other withdrawal requests, 4) items deposited by an owner and returned unpaid by the paying institution, and 5) imposition of service charges. Checks and ACH debits may be presented to us in batches or data files, and are paid when we process the data file. Checks in the same data file may be processed in any order we deem appropriate. Checks presented for payment at one of our branches are processed at the time of payment. Debit card transactions are processed when they are transmitted to us, which may occur at the time of the transaction or up to several days later. The merchant or its processor determines when the transaction will be transmitted to us. When a merchant obtains authorization for a debit card transaction, we place a temporary hold against the funds in the account for the amount of the authorized transaction. In some cases, such as restaurants, gas stations, or car rental transactions, there may be a hold for an initially authorized amount, but the transaction is submitted at a different amount. You should be certain there are enough funds in your account at all times to pay checks or other transactions you authorize, or those checks or transactions will be handled according to the overdraft and insufficient funds terms of this Agreement, or paid under one of our check overdraft services if applicable. You agree that we may change these practices at any time without prior notice to you to address data processing constraints, changes in law, regulation, clearing house rules or business concerns.
- b) Determination of Available Balance to Pay Items. Checks and other transactions on your account are paid based on your available balance, and not the actual balance. Your actual balance is the amount of funds in the account at a point in time based on transactions that have posted to the account at that time. Your available balance is the amount of funds in the account that are available to pay checks, ACHs, and other items presented against the account without incurring an overdraft or non-sufficient funds fee or transferring funds from another account. The available balance is generally equal to the actual balance, less the amount of any holds placed on recent deposits, holds placed for other reasons, and holds for pending transactions (such as debit card purchases) that we have authorized but that have not yet posted to your account. If an item presented for payment against your account exceeds the available balance, we will treat it as presented against non-sufficient funds even if the actual balance exceeds the amount of the item

- c) Responsibility for Items Presented Against Insufficient Available Funds. If on any day, the available funds in your checking account are not sufficient to cover checks and other items posted to your account, those checks and items will be handled in accordance with our overdraft procedures or an overdraft protection plan you have with us. The Credit Union's determination of an insufficient account balance may be made at any time between presentation and the Credit Union's midnight deadline with only one review of the account required. The Credit Union has no duty to notify you of an insufficient funds check. Your account will then be subject to a charge for the item whether paid or returned as set forth in the Rate and Fee Schedule. However, the Credit Union will not charge an overdraft fee for covering an everyday ATM or debit card purchase transaction unless you request such protection. Except as otherwise agreed in writing, the Credit Union, by covering one or any overdraft, does not agree to cover overdrafts in the future and may discontinue covering overdrafts at any time. If the Credit Union pays a draft that would otherwise overdraw your account, you agree to pay the overdraft amount immediately. We reserve the right to pursue collection of previously dishonored items at any time, including giving a payor bank extra time beyond any midnight deadline limits.
- d) Overdraft Protection Plan. If we approve your request for overdraft protection, we will provide an overdraft protection plan for you. We will honor checks drawn on insufficient funds in any checking account by transferring the funds from a deposit or loan account to your checking account. If you elect to have transfer from shares, funds will be transferred in the amount necessary to clear the overdrawn item. If your savings account balance is insufficient to cover the amount of the overdraft, we will only transfer the available funds to cover the amount of the overdraft, if another overdraft protection plan is available, we will not overdraw your savings account. If another overdraft protection plan is not available, we will return the check or item unpaid. If you elect to have transfers from a line of credit account, you authorize us to access your account and transfer funds to your checking account. The fee for overdraft transfers is set forth on the Fee Schedule. Transfers from a share account will be governed by this Agreement. Transfers from your line of credit account will be governed by the applicable loan agreement.

Postdated and Staledated Items

You authorize us to accept and pay any check, even if the check is presented for payment before its date, unless you notify the Credit Union of the postdating. Your notice will be effective only if the Credit Union receives the notice in time for the Credit Union to notify its employees and reasonably act upon the notice and you accurately describe the check, including the number, date, and amount. You understand that the exact information is necessary for the Credit Union's computer to identify the check. If you give the Credit Union an incorrect, incomplete, or untimely notice, the Credit Union will not be responsible for paying the item before the date stated and the Credit Union may charge your account as of the date the Credit Union pays the item. You may make an oral notice which will lapse within fourteen (14) days unless continued in writing, within that time. You also agree not to deposit checks, drafts, or other items before they are properly payable. The Credit Union is under no obligation to you to pay a check drawn on your account which is presented more than six (6) months after its date.

Stop Payment Orders

- a) Stop Payment Request. You may ask the Credit Union to stop payment on any check drawn upon or ACH debit scheduled from your checking account. You may request a stop payment by telephone, by mail, or in person. For checks, the stop payment will be effective if the Credit Union receives the order in time for the Credit Union to act upon the order. For ACH debits, the stop payment order must be received at least three (3) banking days before the scheduled date of the transfer. You must state the number of the account, date and the exact amount of the check or ACH and the number of the check or originator of the ACH debit. The stop payment will be effective if the Credit Union receives the order in time for the Credit Union to act upon the order and you state the number of the account, date and number of the item, its exact amount, and to whom it was issued. If you give the Credit Union incorrect or incomplete information, the Credit Union will not be responsible for failing to stop payment on the item. If the stop payment order is not received in time for the Credit Union to act upon the order, the Credit Union will not be liable to you or to any other party for payment of the item. If we recredit your account after paying a check over a valid and timely stop payment order, you agree to sign a statement describing the dispute with the payee, to transfer all of your rights against the payee or other holders of the check to the Credit Union, and to assist the Credit Union in legal action taken against the person.
- b) Duration of Order. You may make an oral stop payment order which will lapse within fourteen (14) calendar days unless continued in writing within that time. The Credit Union is not obligated to notify you when a stop payment order expires. A stop payment confirmed in writing will expire in six (6) months unless the Credit Union is notified in writing to release the stop.

- c) Liability. The Credit Union may charge a fee for each stop payment order requested, as set forth on the Current Fee Schedule. You may not stop payment on any certified check or draft, cashier's check or teller's check, or any other check, draft, or payment guaranteed by the Credit Union. You should be aware that while payment of the item may be stopped, you may remain liable to any person, including the Credit Union, who is a holder of the item despite the stop payment order. You agree to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless from all costs, including attorney fees, damages or claims related to the Credit Union's action in refusing payment of an item, including claims of any multiple party account owner, payee, or endorsee in failing to stop payment of an item as a result of incorrect information provided by you.

You agree to keep a copy or carbon copy of your original check in order to verify its validity. If you request us to provide you with an original check or sufficient copy, you agree that we may provide an electronic image of the original check or sufficient copy if you have agreed to receive account information or statements electronically. to you.

If you have an account that you have not made a withdrawal from, deposit to, renewal of, or transfer involving your account for the time period specified in the Current Fee Schedule, the Credit Union may classify your account as dormant and may charge a fee as allowed by applicable law and set forth on Current Fee Schedule. Thereafter, dividends or interest will not be paid on the account if the balance falls below any minimum balance requirement. You authorize us to transfer funds from an available share or access an account to cover the monthly maintenance fee, if necessary. If a deposit or withdrawal has not been made on the account and the Credit Union has had no other contact with you for as provided or as required by the Uniform Unclaimed Property Act, the account will be presumed to be abandoned. Funds in abandoned accounts will be remitted in accordance with state law, and may be subject to a fee. Once funds have been turned over to the state, the Credit Union has no further liability to you for such funds and if you choose to reclaim such funds, you must apply to the appropriate state agency.

You irrevocably waive the right to make a testamentary disposition of any account with the Credit Union, now and in the future. You agree that upon your death, your account will be payable in accordance with any existing account designations and the terms of this Agreement. The Credit Union may require the survivor or other claimant to the account to produce certain documents before releasing the funds in the account. The Credit Union may continue to honor all transfers, withdrawals, deposits and other transactions on the account until the Credit Union learns of an account owner's death. Once the Credit Union learns of a member's death, the Credit Union may pay checks or honor other payments or transfer orders authorized by the deceased member for a period of ten (10) days unless the Credit Union receives instructions from any person claiming an interest in the account to stop payment on the checks or other items. You agree that the Credit Union can require that anyone who claims funds in your account after your death to indemnify the Credit Union for any losses resulting from honoring that claim.

If you are expelled, you may not be a joint account owner on another account.

Special Account Instructions

You may request the Credit Union to facilitate certain trust, will, or court-ordered account arrangements. However, because the Credit Union does not give legal advice, we cannot counsel you as to which account arrangement most appropriately meets the specific requirements of your trust, will, or court order. You and any surviving owner or beneficiary agree(s) to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless from any claim or liability asserted against the Credit Union as a result of the disposition of funds in reliance on this agreement and any account designation of yours. If you ask the Credit Union to follow instructions that the Credit Union believes might expose it to claims, suits, lawsuits, expenses, liabilities, or damages, whether directly or indirectly, the Credit Union may refuse to follow your instructions or may require you to post a bond or otherwise indemnify the Credit Union. Any item presented with a full payment legend must be presented in person to a Credit Union officer; otherwise, payment is accepted with full reservation of rights. Account changes requested by you must be evidenced by a signed Membership Application and be accepted by the Credit Union. You authorize the Credit Union to deduct any such liability, loss, or expense from your account without prior notice to you. In the event either party brings a legal action to enforce the Agreement or collect any overdrawn funds on accounts accessed under this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled, subject to applicable law, to payment by the other party of its reasonable attorney's fees and costs, including fees on any appeal, bankruptcy proceedings, and any post-judgment collection actions, if applicable.

Funds to cover your Card purchases will be deducted from your checking account. If the balance in your account is not sufficient to pay the transaction amount, the Credit Union may treat the transaction as an overdraft request pursuant to the Overdraft Service or may terminate all services under the Agreement. At the present time, you may use your Debit Card to make the following transactions on your accounts:

- Withdraw cash from your savings, or checking accounts.
- Transfer funds between your savings, checking accounts or loan accounts.
- Obtain account balance information on savings and checking accounts.
- Make loan payments from savings or checking accounts.
- Make deposits to your savings or checking accounts at Credit Union ATMs.

There is no limit on the number of POS purchase transactions you may make by Card during a statement period. You may make purchase amounts up to a maximum of $2,500.00 or 15 transactions per day. You may withdraw up to $500.00 (if there are sufficient funds available in your account) per day at any authorized ATM, subject to security requirements and limits placed by each individual ATM. The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse any transaction which would draw upon insufficient funds, lower an account below a required balance, or otherwise require us to increase our required reserve on the account. The Credit Union may set security requirements and other limits on the amount of any transaction, and you will be notified of those limits. The Credit Union may refuse to honor any transaction for which you do not have sufficient available verified funds.

Preauthorized Electronic Funds Transfers and Direct Deposit

Preauthorized electronic funds transfers may be made into or from your Credit Union accounts. These may include preauthorized electronic funds transfers made to an account from a third party (such as Social Security or your employer) or from an account to a third party (such as a mortgage company or insurance premium payment, excluding bill payment transactions). If electronic funds transfers are made into or from your account, those payments may be affected by a change in your account status or if you transfer or lose your account. Upon instruction of (i) your employer, (ii) the Treasury Department, or (iii) other financial institutions, the Credit Union will accept direct deposits of your paycheck or of federal recurring payments, such as Social Security.

Security of Access Code (Password)

The access code is your Password you select for your security. Your Password is confidential and should not be disclosed to third parties or recorded. You are responsible for safekeeping your Password. You agree not to disclose or otherwise make your Password or Wireless Device for Mobile Banking available to anyone not authorized by you to sign on your accounts. If you authorize anyone to have or use your Password or Wireless Device, you understand that person may use the Online Banking, Mobile Banking or Bill Pay service to access and review all of your account information and execute account transactions. Therefore, we are entitled to act on transaction instructions received using your Password and you agree that the use of your Password will have the same effect as your signature authorizing transactions. If you authorize anyone to use your Password in any manner that authority will be considered unlimited in amount and manner until you specifically revoke such authority by notifying the Credit Union and changing your Password immediately. You are responsible for any transactions made by such persons until you notify us that transactions and access by that person are no longer authorized and your Password is changed. If you fail to change your Password or maintain the security of your Password and the Credit Union suffers a loss, we may terminate your electronic services immediately.

Acceptable Use

You may not use the Electronic Services for any illegal or unlawful transaction, and we may decline to authorize any transaction that we believe poses an undue risk of illegality or unlawfulness. You agree that all transactions that you initiate by use of the Electronic Services are legal in the jurisdiction where you live and/or where the transaction occurred. Internet gambling may be illegal in the jurisdiction in which you are located, including the United States. Your electronic funds transfers may only be conducted for legal transactions. You agree that you are independently responsible for complying with all applicable laws in all of your activities related to your use of the Electronic Services, regardless of the purpose of the use, and for all communications you send through the Electronic Services.

Member Liability

You are solely responsible for all transfers you authorize using any Services under this Agreement. If you permit other persons to use your Password or access code and initiate transactions with this Service, you are responsible for any transactions they authorize or conduct on any of your Accounts. For EFT transactions on a consumer deposit account, under this Agreement, you are responsible for all transactions you authorize using Online Banking, Mobile Banking, Bill Pay, and any other Electronic Service. For consumer accounts, transactions by family members or friends that you allow on your Account are authorized by you. If you permit other persons to use your Password, you are responsible for any transactions they authorize or conduct on any of your accounts. However, you must notify us immediately if you believe anyone has used your Password and accessed your accounts without your authorization. For EFT transactions, if you notify us within two (2) business days, you can lose no more than $50 if someone accessed your account without your permission. If you do not notify us within two (2) business days after you learn of the unauthorized use of your account or Password, and we can prove that we could have stopped someone from accessing your account without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500.

If your statement shows EFT transactions that you did not make, notify us immediately. If you do not notify us within sixty (60) days after the statement was mailed or electronically delivered to you, you may be liable for the full amount of the loss if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from making the unauthorized EFT transactions. If a good reason (such as a hospital stay) kept you from notifying us, we may extend the time period.

- Direct Deposits. If you have arranged to have a direct deposit made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same source and you do not receive a receipt (such as a pay stub), you can find out whether or not the deposit has been made by contacting the Credit Union as set forth above.

- c) Account Information Disclosure. We will maintain the confidentiality and privacy of your account information in accordance with our Privacy Policy as stated on our website at <http://www.nwpreferredcu.com>. However, we may disclose information to third parties about your account or the transactions you submit in the following limited circumstances:
- As necessary to complete transfers;
 - To verify the existence of sufficient funds to cover specific transactions upon the request of a third party, such as a credit bureau or merchant;
 - To comply with government agencies or court orders; and
 - If you give us your express written permission.

Preauthorized Electronic Fund Transfers

- a) Cancellation Rights. If you have authorized the Credit Union to originate regular electronic fund transfers from (or to) your account at the Credit Union, you may cancel your request for the Credit Union to make the transfer at least three (3) business days before the scheduled date of the transfer. This request may be made orally or in writing. If you order us to cancel one of these payments three (3) business days or more before the transfer is scheduled, and we do not do so, we will be liable for your losses or damages only if accurate information was provided to us.
- b) Notice of Varying Amount. If these regular payments may vary in amount, the company you are going to pay will tell you ten (10) days before each payment when it will be made and how much it will be.
- c) Liability. The Credit Union may charge a fee for each stop payment order requested, as set forth in the Rate and Fee Schedule. If payment of an item is stopped, you may remain liable to any person, including the Credit Union, who is the holder of the item despite the stop payment order. You agree to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless from all costs, including attorney fees, damages or claims related to the Credit Union's action in refusing payment of an item, including claims of any multiple party account owner, payee, or endorsee in failing to stop payment of an item as a result of incorrect information provided by you.

Credit Union Liability for Electronic Services

If we do not complete a transaction to or from your account on time or in the correct amount according to our agreement with you, we will be liable for your losses or damages. Our sole responsibility for an error in a transaction will be to correct the error and in no case will we be liable for any indirect, special, incidental, or consequential damages. In states that do not allow the exclusion or limitation of such damages, our liability is limited to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Credit Union will not be liable for the following:

- If, through no fault of ours, you do not have sufficient funds in your account to complete the transaction, your account is inactive, or the transaction would exceed the credit limit on your line of credit, if applicable.
- If you used the wrong account or Password, or you have not properly followed any applicable service or Credit Union user instructions for making Online & Mobile Banking or Bill Pay.
- If your personal computer malfunctioned or the phone lines were not working properly, or the Credit Union computer system was not working properly and such problem(s) should have been apparent when you attempted your transaction.
- If circumstances beyond our control (such as fire, flood, telecommunication outages or strikes, equipment or power failure) prevent making the transaction.
- If the funds in your account are subject to an administrative hold, legal process or other claim.
- If you have not given the Credit Union complete, correct and current instructions so the Credit Union can process the transaction.
- If, through no fault of ours, an Online or Mobile Banking or Bill Pay transaction does not reach a particular payee due to changes in the payee address, account number or otherwise; the time you allow for payment delivery was insufficient; payment is lost in the mail or the payee failed to process a payment correctly or in a timely manner and a fee, penalty, or interest charge is assessed against you.
- If an error was caused by a system beyond the Credit Union's control such as a telecommunications system, an Internet Service Provider, any computer virus or problems related to software not provided by the Credit Union.
- If there are other exceptions as established by the Credit Union.

Termination of Electronic Services

You agree that we may terminate this Agreement and your Online & Mobile Banking or Bill Pay services, if you, or any authorized user of EFT services breach this or any other agreement with us; or if we have reason to believe that there has been an unauthorized use of your accounts or Password. In addition, we reserve the right to terminate the service if you fail to use the service for more than two consecutive billing cycles. You or any other party to your account can terminate this Agreement by notifying us in writing. Termination of service will be effective the first business day following receipt of your written notice. However, monthly fees will apply for any partial month with no prorating. Termination of this Agreement will not affect the rights and responsibilities of the parties under this Agreement for transactions initiated before termination.

Statement Errors on Consumer Accounts

In case of errors or questions about your EFT transactions, contact us at the phone number or address set forth above as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than sixty (60) days after we sent the first statement on which the problem appears.

- Tell us your name and member number.
- Describe the transaction you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

If you tell us verbally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within ten (10) business days. We will tell you the results of our investigation within ten (10) business days after we hear from you and will correct the error promptly. For errors related to transactions occurring within thirty (30) days after the first deposit to the account (new accounts), we will tell you the results of our investigation within twenty (20) business days. If we need more time, however, we may take up to forty-five (45) calendar days to investigate your complaint or question (ninety (90) calendar days for new account transaction errors, or errors involving transactions initiated outside the United States). If we decide to do this, we will re-credit your account within ten (10) business days for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within ten (10) business days, we may not re-credit your account.

If we decide after our investigation that an error did not occur, we will deliver or mail to you an explanation of our findings within three (3) business days after the conclusion of our investigation. If you request, we will provide you copies of documents (to the extent possible without violating other members' rights to privacy) relied upon to conclude that the error did not occur.

Amendments

The Credit Union reserves the right to change the terms and conditions upon which this service is offered. The Credit Union will notify you, by mail, at least twenty-one (21) days before the effective date of any change, as required by law. Use of this service is subject to existing regulations governing the Credit Union account and any future changes to those regulations.

Enforcement

You agree to be liable to the Credit Union for any liability, loss, or expense as provided in this Agreement that the Credit Union incurs as a result of any dispute involving your accounts or services. You authorize the Credit Union to deduct any such liability, loss, or expense from your account without prior notice to you. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the state of Oregon as applied to contracts entered into solely between residents of, and to be performed entirely in, such state. In the event either party brings a legal action to enforce the Agreement or collect any overdrawn funds on accounts accessed under this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to, subject to Oregon law, payment by the other party of its reasonable attorney's fees and costs, including fees on any appeal, bankruptcy proceedings, and any post-judgment collection actions, if applicable. Should any one or more provisions of this Agreement be determined illegal or unenforceable in any relevant jurisdiction, then such provision be modified by the proper court, if possible, but only to the extent necessary to make the provision enforceable and such modification shall not affect any other provision of this Agreement.

FUNDS AVAILABILITY POLICY (YOUR ABILITY TO WITHDRAW FUNDS)

General Policy

For savings accounts, we reserve the right to place reasonable holds on deposited funds to the extent permitted by law. For checking accounts, our general policy is to make funds from your deposits available to you on the same business day that we receive your deposit. Electronic direct deposits will be available on the day the deposit is received. Once available, funds may be withdrawn in cash and be available to pay checks written against the member's account. To determine the availability of deposits, every day is considered a business day, except Saturdays, Sundays and federal holidays. Deposits made before 10:00 pm on a business day the Credit Union is open will be considered to be the day of deposit. Deposits made after the close of business or on a day the Credit Union is not open will be considered as having been deposited on the next business day the Credit Union is open.

Reservation of Right To Hold

In some cases, we will not make all of the funds that you deposit by check available to you on the same business day that we receive your deposit. Depending on the type of check that you deposit, funds may not be available until the second business day after the day of your deposit. However, the first $225 of your deposit will be available on the first business day. If we are not going to make all of the funds from your deposit available on the first business day, we will notify you at the time you make your deposit. We will also tell you when the funds will be available. If your deposit is not made directly to one of our employees, or if we decide to take this action after you have left the premises, we will mail you the notice by the day after we receive your deposit. If you need the funds from a deposit right away, you should ask us when the funds will be available.

Holds On Other Funds

If the Credit Union cashes a check drawn on another financial institution, the Credit Union reserves the right to withhold the availability of a corresponding amount of the funds in the member's account. Those funds will be available at the time funds from the check we cashed would have been available if you had deposited it. If the Credit Union accepts deposit of a check drawn on another financial institution, we may make funds from the deposit immediately available for withdrawal but delay availability of a corresponding amount of funds on deposit in another account held by the member at the Credit Union. Those restricted funds would be available for withdrawal following the time frames set forth in this policy.

Longer Delays May Apply

The Credit Union may delay access to funds deposited by check an additional number of days for these reasons:

- Reasonable belief that a deposited check will not be paid.
- Deposit of a check(s) totaling more than $5,525.00 on any one day.
- Deposit of a check that has been returned unpaid.
- Member has overdrawn their account repeatedly in the last six (6) months.
- There is an emergency, such as failure of communications or computer equipment.

The Credit Union will provide notice if access to funds is restricted for any of these reasons, and will advise the depositor when the funds will be available. Funds will generally be available no later than the seventh (7) business day after the day of deposit.

Special Rules For New Accounts

For new members, the following special rules will apply during the first thirty (30) days an account is open. Funds from electronic direct deposits to your account will be available on the day the deposit is received. Funds from deposits of cash, wire transfers, and the first $5,525.00 of a day's total deposits of cashier's, certified, and federal, state, and local government checks will be available on the first (1) business day after the day of deposit if the deposit meets certain conditions. For example, the checks must be payable to the depositor. The excess over $5,525.00 will be available on the ninth (9) business day after the day of deposit. If deposit of these checks (other than a US Treasury check) is not made, in person, at the Credit Union, the first $5,525.00 will not be available until the second (2) business day after the day of deposit. Funds from all other check deposits will be available on the ninth (9) business day after the day of deposit.

Deposits at Nonproprietary ATMs

Funds from any deposits (cash or check) made at automated teller machines (ATMs) we do not own or operate will not be available until five (5) business day after the date of your deposit. This limit does not apply at ATMs that we own or operate. All ATMs that we own or operate are identified accordingly.

Deposits at Automated Teller Machines, Shared Branch Locations & Mobile Devices

Funds from deposits made at automated teller machines (ATMs), shared branch locations and mobile devices will not be available until the second (2nd) business day after the day of your deposit. Once available, you can withdraw the funds in cash and we will use the funds to pay checks that you have written. For deposits made before 10:00 pm at any shared branch locations or mobile device, on a business day that we are open, we will consider that day to be the day of your deposit. However, if you make a deposit after 10:00 pm or on a day we are not open, we will consider that the deposit was made on the next business day we are open.

CHECK CASHING POLICY

A fee, per item, will be assessed for cashing all checks drawn on another financial institution (including payroll checks) unless the member has one of the following:

1. A minimum combined account balance (including IRAs) of $300.00.
2. An active NW Preferred Checking account.
3. A certificate.
4. A loan.
5. A NW Preferred Federal Credit Union Visa card.

Checks will only be cashed for members in good standing. All checks presented are subject to the Credit Union's Funds Availability policy.
